Student Printing

Each semester your first 150 pages are free when printing in the library. The free pages will show up as a $15 credit on your print account. The free pages DO NOT roll over from one semester to the next, and NO refunds are given for any unused pages during a given semester. If you run out of free pages, you may deposit money into your account. Do not deposit more money in your account than you will use in a given semester. Money does not roll over from one semester to the next. If you have never deposited money into your account or have any questions, please see a member of the library staff.

Opposing Viewpoints

Opposing Viewpoints in Context is the premier online resource covering today's hottest social issues, from capital punishment to immigration, to violent video games. This cross-curricular research tool supports science, social studies, current events, and language arts classes. Its informed, differing views present each side of an issue and help users develop information literacy, critical thinking skills, and the confidence to draw their own valid conclusions.

- More than 19,600 pro/con viewpoints
- More than 13,000 topic overviews
- More than 12,600 charts and graphs, along with other statistical information
- 300+ profiles of federal agencies and special-interest groups
- Special coverage of the annual debate topic determined by the National Speech and Debate Association
- Full-text newspapers and periodicals from multiple perspectives, including National Review, The New York Times, The Washington Post, Commentary, and CNN Wire
