Style Guides

Need help with citations in APA and/or MLA style? Check out our 'style guide' display next to the QEP display in the library. Handouts are available to take and use. There is also a selection of books for your use in the library. For more information about APA or MLA style, visit the Purdue University Online Writing Lab (OWL) at <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/u/owl/> Under the 'Suggested Resources' section of the main page you can click on either the MLA Guide or APA Guide and you will get accurate, up-to-date information about formatting and style guide sourcing.

Student Printing

Students printing in the library get their first 150 pages free each semester. These free pages will show as a $15.00 credit on your print account. These free pages DO NOT roll over from one semester to the next and NO refunds are given for any unused pages during a given semester. If you run out of free pages, you may deposit money onto your account. Do not deposit more money on your account than you will use in a given semester. Money does not roll over from one semester to the next. If you have never deposited money onto your account or have any questions, please see a member of the library staff.

In Focus: Continuing Education Classes

OTC offers a few options for those seeking to continue their education. Continuing Education Online is designed to assist in updating present occupational skills or provide new skills for job requirements. OTC offers a variety of online courses to meet this need. You can visit <http://www.okfenokeetech.edu/coned/online.asp> for more information about Continuing Education Online.

OTC also offers a local courses throughout the six-county area on a variety of topics including cake decorating, jewelry making, sewing, and plenty of other choices. Continuing education covers a wide variety of topics, so books for this area can be found throughout the library. You can look up books through the online catalog at <http://www1.youseemore.com/okfenokeetech/default.asp> or ask a member of the staff to assist you.

Contact our Economic Development division to find out more about continuing education. They are located in the 600 building, or call (912) 285-6474.
