

Maintenance Technician 1st Shift

Atlantic Engineered Products is a contract metal stamper supplying general industry with precision metal stampings and assemblies since 1975. We have an opening for a qualified Maintenance Technician on first shift. We are looking for someone who is self-motivated and willing to take on the responsibility of maintaining and improving all stamping and pressroom equipment.

Job Responsibilities

- Troubleshoot 3 phase electrical problems and determine how to correct them
- Troubleshoot mechanical problems and determine how to correct them
- Manage and perform a preventive maintenance program on all stamping and pressroom equipment
- Disassemble, repair, replace and reassemble stamping presses and machinery according to equipment drawings and electrical diagrams
- Record maintenance and repair work performed
- Install new mechanical equipment

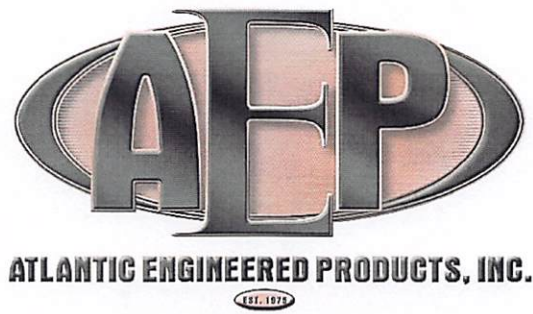

Skills / Experience Required

- Experience in troubleshooting and repairing mechanical, hydraulic and electrical equipment a must
- Knowledge of tools, materials and best practices involved with equipment maintenance
- Electrical experience a must / certification a plus
- Self motivated, detail oriented and well organized

Benefits

- $18 / hr.+ depending on experience
- Medical Insurance
- Short Term / Long Term Disability
- Company matching 401-K retirement plan
- Paid vacation and holidays

Must be able to pass pre-employment drug screen and background check.

Fiber Laser Operator 1st and 2nd Shift

Atlantic Engineered Products is a contract metal stamper supplying general industry with precision metal stampings and assemblies since 1975. We have an opening for a fiber laser operator. This position is responsible for setting up, running and maintaining a fiber laser cutting system.

Job Responsibilities

- This position will be trained to operate and maintain a computer-controlled fiber laser cutting system
- Load and unload large sheets of metal
- Offload and shake out completed metal parts
- Deburr and package completed metal parts
- Maintain timely production schedules
- Learn to adjust equipment settings based on type of material and material thickness
- Review setup instructions and part specifications to determine setup procedures
- Measure completed parts for quality assurance

Skills / Experience Required

- Punctuality and dependability
- Basic math skills
- Basic computer skills
- Good note taking ability
- Attention to detail
- Ability to push/pull 10 – 20 lbs. on a regular basis

Benefits

- $15 / hr.+ depending on experience
- Medical Insurance
- Short Term / Long Term Disability
- Company matching 401-K retirement plan
- Paid vacation and holidays

Must be able to pass pre-employment drug screen and background check.