CARES Disbursement Information

We recognize that many Coastal Pines Technical College students have experienced financial difficulties caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. A provision of the CARES Act, the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF) specifically provides money to colleges to assist with COVID-19-related expense and give direct aid to students most in need at this difficult time.

Coastal Pines Technical College has been awarded additional federal Coronavirus grant funds that are available through the Higher Education Emergency Relief (HEER) Funds. These funds allow colleges to distribute grants to students to cover expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to COVID-19, to assist in covering any component of a student's cost of attendance, and to assist with emergency costs that arise due to coronavirus, such as tuition, food, housing, healthcare, and childcare.

Eligible students who are registered for summer semester 2021 classes in mid-July will be awarded CARES or HEERF funds in mid to later July. The funds will be distributed through the method set up by each student with Bank Mobile.

This summer semester 2021, students do not have to complete a separate CARES application. However, students who have a completed Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for the 2020-2021 year will be evaluated to determine their eligibility for a larger award amount. The results of the FAFSA, a calculated Expected Family Contribution (EFC), identify students with exceptional need. As required, students with exceptional need will receive larger awards.

If your income has changed due to unemployment or reduced employment since filing your taxes, it may be possible to adjust your EFC. You are encouraged to request professional judgement. Contact the Financial Aid Office FinAid@coastalpines.edu for more information.

The eligibility requirements this summer semester are less stringent and more students are eligible. High school dual enrollment students, transient students, and students who are auditing a class are not eligible.

At this time, the amount of the awards and specific date of the award distribution has not been determined. In mid-July, students who are awarded will be sent an award notification email to their CPTC student email account.
